

I can't quite believe this is the last newsletter of Autumn 1. While in some ways the start of September feels a long time ago, the past six weeks also seem to have flown by. It has been a great half term: from school trips to Truro Museum, real life firefighters helping us to recreate the Great Fire of London, to just fantastic learning and effort in the classroom each day.

We want to thank you for your support of the school. We appreciate you all getting behind our drive to improve uniform standards and we feel this is having a positive impact on the children in a number of ways. Most importantly, it helps to reinforce our identity as a school and a community.

As will the Harvest Festival—thank you for attending and for all of the kind donations for the St Austell Foodbank, hope you all enjoyed our assembly. By the time you read this, I am sure you will have all downloaded Big Red Combine Harvester to your most listened to playlist (sadly it is not on Spotify - we have checked!).

Mrs Round has now started her maternity leave and Ms Keevil will be covering her leave. We wish Mrs Round all the very best.

Have a fantastic half term break and we look forward to seeing you in two weeks.

Best wishes

Mr Ringrose

Headteacher
