What a fantastic week we've had here at Mevagissey, bursting with exciting learning! Year 5 received a very important letter from 10 Downing Street in response to the persuasive letters they wrote, inspired by their class novel, Boy at the Back of the Class. The letter is hanging proudly on their classroom wall showing the children the power they have to make a difference. It was also a pleasure to welcome you all in for our 'Book and Biscuit', the children love having you in their classrooms. This week, we hosted our 'Brew Monday' event in partnership with the Samaritans, highlighting the importance of stepping out of the house and reaching out when we're not quite feeling ourselves. Promoting mental health is a golden thread woven throughout our curriculum, and we continuously seek ways to highlight its importance to our children. For parents looking for support, Headstart Kernow offers fantastic resources—do check them out at www.headstartkernow.org.uk. January is always one of the trickier months but we have seen glimmers of the spring sunshine and longer days this week. Here is hoping for more soon! We wish you all a lovely weekend—make sure to get outside and take a moment for yourself!
