This week at School Deputy Headteacher's message

It's been another fantastic week for Meva Magic!

Our Year 5/6 pupils have been having a brilliant time on their residential trip to Barton Hall. The staff are incredibly proud of how well the children have worked together — it's been wonderful to see them supporting one another and embracing every adventure with enthusiasm and teamwork.

On Monday, we welcomed an immersive experience highlighting climate change. A big thank you to the Mevagissey Climate Action Group for providing this engaging opportunity for our children — and for the popcorn!

On Tuesday we had a special visit from Supertato himself! Today, many of our pupils visited the St Austell Literature Festival, where they had the chance to meet several inspiring authors. Lobster Class were especially excited to meet SF Said, the author of their current class novel.

Tickets are still available for this weekend's festival events — just £1 each! Please see the link below for booking information. Have a lovely weekend.
