Seaturtles	100%

I hope you all had a fantastic half term break. It's been great to see the children back at school. As always, they have settled back into their classes seamlessly, and from visiting the classrooms, I have seen lots of learning and a healthy dose of fun! With Halloween and Bonfire Night now behind us, we are full speed ahead towards the Christmas season... keep your eyes peeled for some festive events we have coming soon.

Next week, as part of my SW100 course, I am visiting several schools in London. Many of these schools are renowned for the new and innovative teaching strategies they are using. I am excited to see how these approaches are enhancing learning while also ensuring that children have a great primary school experience – which is of course the most important thing. The great thing about visiting different schools is the opportunity to 'magpie' great ideas and to see if the provision they are offering could be adapted and developed at Mevagissey to the benefit of our pupils.

Claire Bunting (CELT Cradle to Career Lead) will once again be based at Mevagissey while I am away.

Hope you all have a great weekend.

 Wonderful Writer Challenge

Can you include our word of the week - wary?

Hi Mister Tom

Thanks for letting me live in your house. I ^{couldn't} ~~can not~~ believe I have my own room, which is amazing! You have ^{been} really kind to me since you have already given me so much. I was very ^{but} wary of your dog (Sammy) ^{at} he is now my best friend. I was petrified when I saw him first, but I can see ~~to~~ he is a very gentle animal. Thank you. ✓
