As staff, we have constant reminders of how lucky we are to work in a school with such kind and caring pupils, who are so supportive of each other. We saw brilliant examples of this yesterday lunchtime. With the sun beaming down, it was fantastic to see the Year 6 pupils setting up several games and activities on the school field. Pupils of all ages were mixing and playing together, all with big smiles on their faces. It has to be the highlight of the year so far. Minion Tag was particularly popular! Please check out our Facebook page to see these great photographs!

As we approach our Harvest Festival assembly, I am writing to invite you to join us on the 17th of October at 2pm to celebrate the community spirit and generosity that this festival embodies.

This year, we are delighted to announce that we will be joined by a representative from St Austell Food Bank during the assembly. They will be sharing valuable information about the important work they do to support those in need within our community, and how we can contribute to their ongoing efforts. We have a longstanding tradition of supporting the food bank, and each year we are overwhelmed by your kindness and generosity in donating food items.

To help in our collection for the food bank, we will send, via eschools, a list of items requested. Every contribution, no matter how small, makes a significant difference to families in our area, and we are incredibly grateful for your continued support.

We kindly ask that you consider bringing along one or more of these items to the assembly on the 17th or your children can bring them in in the week leading up to it.

I am delighted to say that the song 'Big Red Combine Harvester' will be making a reappearance - a firm favourite that's guaranteed to bring a smile.

Have a great weekend,
Mr Ringrose

Focus question: Can you write a persuasive letter? 3.10.24 Independent Write Final draft
Task: You are Ruskin, writing to Mr Lace to persuade him that you should be chosen as the hero in the play.

Dear Mr lace I strongly believe that I should be the hero in the play and Elris is too mean. Because Elris keeps smashing the windows and he is a bad actor. He even got the lion I think I think should be the hero. Who would like to be a hero? I'm small, kind, nice and it does not matter if I'm small because I can climb the dragon without him noticing me. Clearly I may be small but I can still be the hero in the play because if I was small I can climb the dragon and go behind it and I can defeat the dragon and now I have been practising every day, every week, every line and every letter in the script. I am also really strong to make out that Starfish Class are learning about 'Toys from the past' and would like to invite any grandparents or great grandparents to a Community Cafe on Tuesday 8th October (2pm start) where they can share with the children their memories of their own toys. If anyone has any 'old' toys they could bring in that would be amazing!

The children will be bringing their favourite toy to share with those joining us.

Refreshments will be served by our wonderful PTFA in the school hall, before the children come to join you all.

Please reply, if a relative would like to join us. We hope to see you there!

Carly 😊

Strong and I was suited to be the hero but now I'm more upset than I was. And I have been practising the words for so many months now. And when I was behind the dragon the dragon will be like wife is back and the dragon won't notice me going behind her so you. And when you said that Ruskin & Elris is the hero it really upset me. your sincerely Ruskin.
