This is the final newsletter of the year. It already feels strange to think that the next time we are in class, writing the date on the whiteboards, it will be January 2025!

But there is lots of festive fun and cheer to be had before that time. From all the staff, we wish you a very Happy Christmas and New Year.

I know this message came out earlier this week, but also dropping it here for those who may have missed it:

You are invited to our carol concert on Tuesday 17th of December in the school hall.
 KS1 – 5pm – Children to be dropped off at classroom doors at 4:40pm. Parents to then go back to the main entrance to go into the hall.
 KS2 – 5:45pm – Children to arrive to classroom doors at 5:25pm. Parents to then go back to the main entrance to go into the hall.

Children to be in school uniform with Christmas jumpers or accessories if they would like.

Polite reminder – Whilst you are allowed to take photos of the concert, please do not post these on social media.

As always, thank you for your support this year. I speak for all the staff when I say that we genuinely feel so proud and lucky to work at this fantastic school, with such wonderful pupils, and a strong, supportive community of parents, families, PTFA volunteers/volunteers and committed governors.

Have a brilliant two weeks.

Mr Ringrose
